

Auburn ECOhousing

Announcing the Launch of a Low Cost
Low Risk Approach to Cohousing

Find out how to become a member of the most green community in Auburn

To learn more about cohousing check out

<http://www.cohousing.org>

For more information about
Auburn ECOhousing
please contact us by email
info@auburncohousing.com

Be a part of a cohousing community...

Sharing...

- Common organic gardens
- Common art and music studios
- Common great room with kitchen and dining area
- Game and exercise rooms

Be a part of the team designing the private studio, one, two or three bedroom loft homes

Walk...

- to downtown stores and coffee shops and restaurants
- to train station, and other public transportation
- to art galleries, post office and library

Come to our Open Enrollment Gathering Friday, January 22, 6pm

Beecher Room

Auburn Library 350 Nevada Street

R.S.V.P. is appreciated with first and last name to info@auburncohousing.com

A packet and name tag for each participant will be at the door.

A Green, Small Footprint, CoHousing Project in Beautiful Auburn

We're going green - green now, greener later, with an adaptive retrofit for future green features such as:
solar system rain water catchment vertical gardens

